

- Looking at these coins now after these wonderful weeks of study, what are the things you find most interesting about them?
- Pick three coins. For each, write down one thing about it or one question it raises that you would like to learn more about.
- ...This is one way to find a good topic for a research paper, should you ever need to do such a thing....