

SOUTH KOREA'S FIGHT FOR DEMOCRACY

ONLINE SEMINAR FOR SECONDARY TEACHERS

Over the past century, South Korea has transformed from a war-torn nation into a thriving democracy, shaped by decades of political struggle and civic resistance. This course explores the history, key events, and lasting impacts of Korea's democracy movement, from post-war divisions and the April Revolution to the Gwangju Uprising. Participants will examine the rise of authoritarian regimes, the pivotal role of student and labor movements, and the impact of media in shaping historical memory and global awareness. The course will uncover the profound lessons from Korea's fight for justice and self-determination.

JAN 27 - FEB 23, 2025

Course Format:

The seminar includes four asynchronous weeks with readings and discussions. Online introductions begin on January 27, 2025, and modules run from February 3 to February 23, 2025. A Curriculum Implementation Plan (CIP) is due March 9, 2025.

Eligibility:

- Open to secondary teachers with priority for those in world history, global studies, U.S. history, humanities, and language arts. Limited to 25 teachers.

Benefits:

- Access to materials online or via download. $75 completion award and certificate for 16 hours.

For inquiries: Emma Kay Tocci
emma.tocci@colorado.edu

APPLY ONLINE AT:
tinyurl.com/TEAcourseregistration

This course is made possible through funding from the Freeman Foundation to the National Consortium for Teaching about Asia, Program for Teaching East Asia, University of Colorado Boulder.