

FROM BANDUNG TO THE BELT & ROAD: CHINA'S EVOLVING ROLE IN AFRICA

NATIONAL ONLINE SEMINAR FOR SECONDARY TEACHERS

This seminar traces the arc of China–Africa relations from their symbolic beginnings at the 1955 Bandung Conference—where Chinese Premier Zhou Enlai joined leaders from newly independent Asian and African nations to champion anti-colonialism and solidarity—to the 21st century’s Belt and Road Initiative and beyond. We will explore how the ideals of Afro-Asian unity evolved into contemporary development partnerships, the “Beijing Consensus,” the 2024 China–Africa Changsha Declaration on Upholding Solidarity and Cooperation of the Global South, and patterns of migration both from China to the African continent and from the African continent to China.

OCTOBER 27 - DECEMBER 7, 2025

Course Format:

The seminar includes an intro week and four asynchronous weeks with readings and discussions. Online introductions begin on October 27, and modules run from November 3 to December 7. A Curriculum Implementation Plan is due December 15.

Eligibility:

Open to secondary contract teachers with priority for those in world history, global studies, comparative government and, humanities. Limited to 25 teachers.

Benefits:

Access to materials online or via download. $75 completion award and certificate for 16 hours.

For inquiries: Lynn Kalinauskas
lyka3575@colorado.edu

APPLY ONLINE AT:
tinyurl.com/TEAcourseregistration

This course is made possible through funding from the Freeman Foundation to the National Consortium for Teaching about Asia, Program for Teaching East Asia, University of Colorado Boulder.