Sarang Saves the School with author Korena Di Roma Howley

A Professional Development Webinar for Teachers

Tuesday, February 9, 2027 at 7pm ET

"A sweet ode to educational access, inspired by true events." - Kirkus Reviews

Author Korena Di Roma Howley shares perspectives on elementary school life in South Korea in her Freeman Book Award-winning picturebook. Based on true events, Sarang Saves the School addresses a declining student population and generational illiteracy in a rural seaside village in present-day South Korea.

For inquiries: Anne Prescott, aprescott@fivecolleges.edu

Register Here!

This course is made possible through funding from the Freeman Foundation to the National Consortium for Teaching about Asia, Program for Teaching East Asia, University of Colorado Boulder.