

The Center for Asian Studies at the University of Colorado at Boulder TEA News Jan. 10

Upcoming Colorado Programs

Upcoming CO Programs

National Opportunities

NCTA Seminars

Program Highlights

Resources

Wednesday, January 20, 2010. 11:45 a.m. – 1:15 p.m. Denver World Affairs Council Speaker - Zachary Karabell. The Institute of International Education is hosting Zachary Karabell, who will talk about his book In the Red: How China and America Became One Superpower and What that Means for the Future. The book offers a brief on the convergence of the U.S. and Chinese economies. The event will take place at the Denver Athletic Club and is $35 for IIE members and $45 for non-members and guests. For more information, visit here.

Deadline. Friday, February 5, 2010. Jackson/Ho China Forum with Elizabeth Economy. The Center for China-U.S. Cooperation at the University of Denver will host a "Conversation on China's Environment" with Elizabeth Economy on Tuesday, February 9, 2010, 4:00 – 5:00 p.m. For more information, visit www.du.edu/korbel/china/forums/index.html.

Previously Mentioned Colorado Opportunities

Saturday, February 20, 2010. 11:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. Art and Math Workshop. At this SSEWA workshop, Dr. Sunita Vatuk, visiting scholar at the Department of Mathematics at CU Boulder, will lead a workshop on using Islamic arts to teach mathematics in the classroom. This workshop is intended for middle school math teachers, but is open to any educator interested in learning about the intersection of math and art. For more information, visit the CAS website or contact Kunga Lama at Kunga.Lama@colorado.edu.

Saturday, February 27, 2010. 8:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. Matsuo Bashō and Haiku. Join Professor Laurel Rodd of the CU Department of Asian Languages and Civilizations and TEA Japan study-tour alumni for a program on the history of the Tokugawa period and the literary background that led to the development of haiku. Registration information will be available on the TEA website at the end of January 2010.

Saturday, March 13, 2010. 10:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. Ninth Annual Asia Day. The Center for Asian Studies at the University of Colorado hosts a day of music, dance, language, and other sessions on many countries in Asia. There will be activities for K-12 students as well as for adults. For more information, visit www.colorado.edu/cas/asiaday.html.

National Opportunities

Deadline. Monday, January 25, 2010. Connecting U.S. High Schools to Peers in Japan. Global Nomads Group is looking for U.S. high schools to connect to high schools in Japan in videoconferences scheduled to begin in April 2010. Contact Christine Robinson at Christine@gng.org.

Deadline. Monday, February 15, 2010. Chinese Guest Teacher Program. The Chinese Guest Teacher Program is a collaboration of Hanban/Confucius Institute Headquarters and National Council of State Supervisors for Languages. For more information, visit www.collegeboard.com/guestteacher.

Deadline. Friday, February 26, 2010. Indiana Chinese Language Teachers Workshop. Saturday, March 20. For more information and registration form, click here.

Deadline. Monday, March 1, 2010. Seminar on Korea History and Culture. The Korea Academy for Educators, the Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles, and the Korea Foundation offer a seminar on Korean history and culture for K-12 administrators and teachers in Los Angeles, August 2-6, 2010. For more information, visit here or the website at www.KoreaAcademy.org.

Environmental Issues in China and Japan. The New York Japan Society and China Institute are offering a 30-hour professional development course for K-12 educators in cooperation with the NYC Department of Education. The course runs February 16 through February 20 from 8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m in New York. For more information, visit here.

Summer Study in China. China Institute's Summer Study in China program provides a select group of high school students the opportunity to receive intensive Chinese language training while immersing themselves in Chinese language, culture, and society. The study is in Beijing from July 9-August 21, 2010. For an on-line application or more information, visit www.chinainstitute.org/edu/summerstudyinchina or www.illearn.china360online.org.

Japan-U.S. Teacher Exchange Program for Education for Sustainable Development (ESD). The Japan Fulbright Memorial Fund Teacher Program through the Institute of International Education (IIE) announces this new program by Fulbright Japan. The Japan-U.S. Teacher Exchange Program for ESD will provide up to 48 U.S. teachers and administrators with the opportunity to travel to Japan in late April on this fully funded program to learn about ESD efforts and strengthen ESD curricula in both countries. For more information, visit www.iie.org/ESDteacher or contact Susan Gundersen at the Institute of International Education (IIE), ESDteacher@iie.org.

Teach/Tour China Summer 2010. International Partnerships in Education (IPIE.US) announces its 2010 Summer Teaching Program in China. The tentative dates are set for July 8 – August 5, 2010. For more information, visit www.ipie.us or click on the flier.

April 22 - 24, 2010. National Chinese Language Conference 2010: Learning Chinese, Thinking Globally. Registration for the 2010 National Chinese Language Conference is now open. It will be held at the Renaissance Washington, DC Hotel.

For more information, visit www.asiasociety.org/nclc.

Previously Mentioned National Opportunities

TEA Announces 2010 Summer Institute: “China’s Century? Global Issues, Classroom Applications.” Designed primarily for secondary social studies teachers, this institute will explore China's role in the world through examination of domestic and international issues. The institute will be held at the University of Colorado-Boulder campus from July 19–23, 2010. The program is open to secondary teachers nationwide. Applicants will be selected on a rolling-admission basis until March 5, 2010. For an application packet, click here; for directions on filling out the application, click here.

Deadline: February 2010. 2010 Teachers of Critical Languages Program. The American Councils for International Education have applications available for K-12 schools in the United States to host a Chinese or Arabic exchange teacher in the 2010 Teachers of Critical Languages Program. The application can be accessed at www.tclprogram.org.

Deadline: Monday, March 8, 2010. Teaching East Asian Literature in the High School Workshop. The East Asian Studies Center at Indiana University is accepting applications for the 12th annual Teaching East Asian Literature in the High School Workshop. This workshop is for high school teachers of English and World Literature and will take place in Indiana from July 11-16, 2010. For more information, visit www.iub.edu/~easc/outreach/educators/literature/index.shtml.

NCTA Seminars

Program Highlights

Resources

China360. On April 26, 2009, in Beijing, China, China Institute unveiled its global education web initiative, China360, providing a platform for K-12 educators and students from the United States, China, and around the world to participate interactively in information sharing across all subject areas. To access this social network, visit www.chinainstitute.org/education or www.china360online.org.

From Silk to Oil: Cross-Cultural Connections along the Silk Roads, A Curriculum Guide for Educators. This book of global studies curriculum, funded by the U.S. Department of Education and produced by China Institute, begins in the second century BCE and ends in the contemporary period. Its twenty-three units are divided into five sections. From Silk to Oil is designed for teachers of high school world history, global studies, social studies, geography, literature, and art. For a free copy, contact Kevin Lawrence at klawrence@chinainstitute.org. The entire curriculum guide is also available in PDF format at www.chinainstitute.org/educators/silkguide.html.

The Asian Art Museum Is Now on iTunes U. The iTunes U is a portal in Apple's iTunes Store wherein educational institutions can provide free, high-quality downloadable content for your Mac, PC, iPod, or iPhone. Apple's iTunes application is necessary to access iTunes U. To download a free version of iTunes for Mac or PC, visit www.apple.com/itunes/download/. To view the Asian Art Museum's new iTunes U site, visit deimos.apple.com/WebObjects/Core.woa/Browse/asianart.org.

Special Discount Offer to High School Teachers for Wings of Defeat. The 53 minute version of Wings of Defeat is being offered at a 50% discount. The list price for the 53 minute film for high schools is currently $99.00. It is now offered at half of that price. For more information, visit www.edgewoodpictures.com/wingsofdefeat/dvd_purchase.html.

The Program for Teaching East Asia

University of Colorado at Boulder
595 UCB
Boulder, CO
80309

(303) 735-5122

To subscribe or unsubscribe from this list, please contact jessica.oppenheim@colorado.edu.