

---

THE NATIONAL CONSORTIUM FOR TEACHING ABOUT ASIA AND
THE PROGRAM FOR TEACHING EAST ASIA
UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

Winter/Spring 2019

Korea in the Modern World, Part 2: 1945-Present

A Professional Development Seminar for Secondary Teachers

NCTA at the Program for Teaching East Asia offers Part 2 of a two-part online course for secondary (6-12) teachers nationwide to consider the impacts of imperialism and independence, political-economic and nationalist ideologies, and globalization on the development of Korea, 1894 to the present. In Part 2, participants examine primary and secondary sources that focus on the political, economic, and cultural trajectories of North and South Korea in the globalizing world and the future of the two Koreas (1945-present). The seminar will address the World History Content Standards and AP World History Course Guidelines.

Course Format and Expectations: This seminar will be conducted through four asynchronous online modules, each consisting of pertinent readings and/or featured media or video lecture and a participant discussion forum on content and pedagogy. The course begins January 24, 2019, with online introductions. The four modules run January 31-February 13; February 14-27; February 28-March 13; and March 14-27. A final paper and evaluation will be due April 10, 2019.

Eligibility and Application: Secondary teachers nationwide are invited to apply. Enrollment is limited to 20 teachers; applications will be accepted on a rolling admissions basis. Registration closes January 10, 2019, or when course is full. Preference will be given to world history and geography teachers and, additionally, to contract teachers and teachers who are not taking another winter/spring 2019 TEA-NCTA online course.

Program Costs and Benefits: Participants receive:

- 24 contact hours of study, curriculum, and discussion with Korean studies specialists and fellow educators.
- Course materials.
- $50 completion award upon satisfactory completion of the course.
- Certificate of Completion for 24 hours.

Apply online at <http://www.colorado.edu/ptea/content/korea-seminar>. For more information, contact course leader Catherine Ishida at Catherine.Ishida@colorado.edu or 303-735-5115.

---

This course is made possible through funding from the Freeman Foundation to the National Consortium for Teaching about Asia, Program for Teaching East Asia, University of Colorado Boulder, 595 UCB, Boulder, CO 80309-0595.