

University of Colorado Boulder

Program for Teaching East Asia
Center for Asian Studies

595 UCB
Boulder, Colorado 80309-0595
Phone: 303-735-5122
Fax: 303-735-5126

Milestones in K-12 Japan Studies

By Linda S. Wojtan

For the National Consortium for Teaching about Asia (NCTA) at the Program for Teaching East Asia, University of Colorado, Boulder

The following resources are cited in the Milestones in K-12 Japan Studies NCTA Class App video.

Books:

Asia: Teaching About/Learning From, by Seymour Fersh. New York: Columbia University Teachers College Press, 1978.

Free Resources for Teaching about Japan, by Linda S. Wojtan. Bloomington: Indiana University East Asian Studies Center, 1979.

Newsweek NewsSource. Japan-US Relations: A Multicultural Perspective, by Lynn Parisi and others. Newsweek, 1993.

In Search of Mutual Understanding. Joint Report of the Japan-US Textbook Study Project, January 1981.

In Search of Mutual Understanding: A Classroom Approach to Japan by James M. Becker, et. al. Bloomington: Indiana University Social Studies Development Center and Denver: University of Denver Center for Teaching International Relations, 1985.

Internationalizing the U.S. Classroom: Japan as a Model, edited by Donald Spence and Linda S. Wojtan. Bloomington: ERIC Clearinghouse for Social Studies/Social Science Education, 1993.

Opening Doors: Contemporary Japan, A project of the Education Sub-Committee, United States-Japan Conference for Cultural and Educational Interchange (CULCON) in cooperation with the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction. New York: The Asia Society, 1979.

Nippon Nyumon: An Idea Book for Teaching Japanese Economic Topics. Joint publication of National Council for the Social Studies, ERIC Clearinghouse for Social Studies/Social Science Education, and the National Clearinghouse for US-Japan Studies. Washington, DC, and Bloomington, 1999.

Parallel Passages: Contrasting Views from the US and Japan, by James M. Becker and Linda S. Wojtan. Bloomington: Indiana University Social Studies Development Center, 1983.

“Perspectives on Japan: A Guide for Teachers.” NCSS Bulletin No. 69, edited by John J. Cogan and Donald O. Schneider. Washington, DC: National Council for the Social Studies, 1983.

Resources for Teaching about Japan, by Linda S. Wojtan. Bloomington: National Clearinghouse for US-Japan Studies, 1993.

Schooling and Citizenship in a Global Age: An Exploration of the Meaning and Significance of Global Education, by Lee Anderson. Bloomington: Indiana University Social Studies Development Center, 1979.

Schooling for a Global Age, edited by James M. Becker. New York: McGraw-Hill Book Company, 1979.

Snapshots from Japan: The Lives of Seven Japanese High School Students, by Mary Hammond Bernson, Kathleen Woods Masalski, Lynn S. Parisi, and Linda S. Wojtan. New York: Japan Foundation Center for Global Partnership, 2004.

Stepping Stones: Teaching about Japan in Elementary Grades, compiled and with commentary by Elgin Heinz. The US-Japan Education Group, 1983.

Symbolism in Japanese Language and Culture: Activities for the Elementary Classroom. Stanford: The Japan Project, Stanford Program on International and Cross-Cultural Education, 1991.

The Constitution and Individual Rights in Japan: Lessons for Middle and High School Students, by Lynn S. Parisi. Bloomington: ERIC Clearinghouse for Social Studies/Social Science Education and National Clearinghouse for US-Japan Studies, 1992.

Tora no Maki: Lessons for Teaching about Contemporary Japan. Washington, DC: National Council for the Social Studies, 1996.

Tora no Maki II: Lessons for Teaching about Contemporary Japan. National Council for the Social Studies, and ERIC Clearinghouse for Social Studies/Social Science Education: Washington, DC, and Bloomington, 1997.

Tora no Maki III: Lessons for Teaching about Contemporary Japan. Washington, DC: National Council for the Social Studies, 1998.

Newsletters, Journals, and Other Resources:

“An EAA Interview with Houghton Freeman,” by Lynn Parisi. Education about Asia Vol. 12, No. 2 (Fall 2007).

Mansfield photo source: (US Library of Congress)

<http://www.loc.gov/exhibits/civil-rights-act/civil-rights-act-of-1964.html#obj165>

Map of Japan, free distribution through Consulates General of Japan in the US, 2001.

Planning a Teachers' Workshop on Japan, by Elgin Heinz. Pamphlet freely distributed circa 1981.

"Pioneers in Asian Studies Outreach." Education about Asia Vol. 5, No. 2 (Fall 2000).

"Special Section: 50 Years of United States-Japanese Foreign Relations," edited by John J. Cogan and David Grossman. Social Education Vol. 55, No. 7 (November/December 1991).

"Teaching and Learning about Japan," theme issue, Social Studies and the Young Learner, Vol. 10, No. 3 (January/ February 1998).

Teaching about Japan: Notes for a Workshop, by Elgin Heinz. Pamphlet prepared for use with the film, Teaching about Japan, and freely distributed, circa 1978.

"The Curriculum Issue," theme issue, CGP Newsletter, Japan Foundation Center for Global Partnership, Vol. 19 (Spring 1998).

"USJF Precollege Networks Link Regional Programs in US and Japan," FORUM Newsletter of the United States-Japan Foundation, Vol. 6, No. 1 (Fall 1990).

Organizations and Journals:

Education about Asia, online open access to all issues since 1996, www.asian-studies.org/EAA

Japan Foundation Center for Global Partnership, www.cgp.org

Keizai Koho Center Fellowships, www.kkc.or.jp/english/fellowship

National Consortium for Teaching about Asia, www.NCTAsia.org

National Council for the Social Studies, www.socialstudies.org

Stanford Program on International and Cross-Cultural Education, www.spice.stanford.edu

United States-Japan Foundation, www.us-jf.org