Front Range K-12 teachers:
Save the dates for the Teaching East Asia Resource (TEA)
Give-Away and Yard Sale

TEA K-12 Teacher Resource Give-away, April 26, 4-6 p.m. and April 27, 9-11 a.m.

TEA and the Center for Asian Studies at CU Boulder will be moving to a smaller space in fall 2019. Our loss is your gain! To accommodate our smaller space, we are giving away East Asia- and South Asia-related books (fiction and non-fiction, including children’s lit), videos (yes, VHS), curriculum materials, teaching artifacts, language tapes, and other resources. All area educators are welcome; admission to the event requires a $5 donation to the University of Colorado (with memo/notation on checks: Teaching East Asia), which entitles visitors to select as many items as you can carry in 1 shopping bag. ($5 charge for additional shopping bags.) Please bring your own bag(s). The Give-Away will be held at the Center for Asian Studies (CAS) building, 1424 Broadway, Boulder. Parking is available at meters on University Avenue, east of Broadway, with parking behind the CAS building after 5 p.m. See map below.

TEA Yard Sale, May 4, 2019

The yard sale will feature Asian artwork, crafts and craft supplies, posters, and instructional artifact trunk contents, including some antiques, collector’s items, vintage traditional clothing (kimono, Mao suits, elementary school uniforms). The yard sale will take place from 8 a.m.-1 p.m., May 4 in Boulder. Location will be posted on the TEA website (www.colorado.edu/ptea) and announced on the TEA Twitter site (TEA@CU) on May 2.

April 26-27 TEA Give-away at 1424 Broadway. Park on University east of Broadway or behind CAS building after 5 and on Saturday.
