

WANT TO WORK WITH LOCAL YOUTH FOR SOCIAL CHANGE?

Enroll NOW for Public Achievement's fall course!
INVS 2919 - Renewing Democracy in Communities and Schools

In this class, undergraduates help local K-12 students design and implement projects that address community issues, such as bullying, domestic violence, global warming, youth homelessness, immigration, etc. CU students work with young people to learn civic leadership skills and use their voices to work for social change. This course fulfills the Human Diversity core requirement and may be applied toward the Education Minor and Leadership Minor. This course is open to ALL CU Boulder undergraduates.

Seminar (choose one section):

Monday 1-2:30 (section 010) or Monday 2:55-4:25 (section 020)

You will choose your Practicum placement during the first week of class.

Available Practicum placements: Creekside Elementary, Tuesday 2:40-4:10; Columbine Elementary, Thursday 3:30-5:00; Centaurus High School, Friday 1:10-2:40 or 2:05-3:35; Angevine Middle School, Friday 10:30-11:30 or 11:30-12:30.

Follow us on social media and visit our website: www.colorado.edu/publicachievement

*For more information email Public Achievement Program Director Charla Agnoletti.
charla.agnoletti@colorado.edu*

