

PWR Conflict Resolution

We provide a confidential conflict resolution service for students of the Program for Writing and Rhetoric. Students may consult with the conflict resolution coordinator about perceived problems in their PWR courses without their instructor's knowledge. The PWR conflict resolution coordinator will help settle disputes and personality conflicts between students and instructors. The coordinator will also handle student challenges to a grade, plagiarism concerns, and similar problems that may arise in PWR classes.

Conflict Resolution Coordinator:

Dr. Nathan Pieplow
