

CU Science Discovery Teen Cafe

All Lit Up!

Interactions Between Light, Matter, and Energy

Did you know that white light is composed of all colors? And that a light's color corresponds to its energy? This is because light interacts with different kinds of materials differently based on its energy. Come learn how scientists understand not only the properties of light, but actually use light as a tool to understand our world.

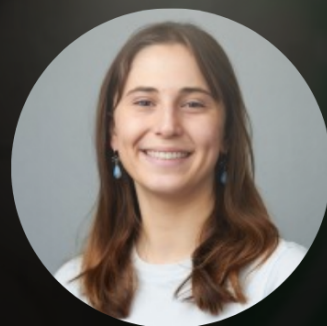

Dr. Rachel Gelfand
University of Colorado Boulder

FREE FOOD
PROVIDED AT THE FUNCTION

Moorhead Recreation
Center (2390 Havana St,
Aurora, CO 80010)

March 19th 2026
5:00-6:30 PM
Be there or be square

Clara Ursic
University of Colorado Boulder

Contact information:
Steven.Denham@colorado.edu

