

Your personal statement gives you the opportunity to tell us more about yourself. It provides insight into your challenges and triumphs in a way that transcripts and test scores simply cannot. When reading your statement, we are looking for sincerity and authenticity. It's easy to tell when a student is writing about something he or she cares deeply about, compared to a student who writes what he or she thinks we want to hear.

There is one required personal statement for transfer applicants. There is no "correct" answer to this question; your responses should reflect the unique aspects and experiences of your life.

Transfer applicants: Complete personal statement listed below.

Transfer Personal Statement (required, 250–650 words):

Inclusive excellence and diversity play a central role at the University of Colorado Boulder and within our learning environments. Please describe why diverse and inclusive learning environments are important and how CU Boulder fits with your academic and professional goals.