Want your Name in the Sociology Graduation Program?

- ◆ In order to get your name in the sociology graduation program, you must submit a Spring 2019 or Summer 2019 graduation application by the April 1st deadline. No exceptions or extensions! The application can be found on MyCUInfo.
- ◆ If you graduated in Fall 2018, your name will be included in the program.
- ◆ If you miss the April 1st deadline for your name to be included in the program: You are still allowed to walk at graduation! Names are read from note cards filled out on the day of the ceremony.

Want your Sociology Diploma in a Timely Manner?

- ◆ In order to get your Spring 2019 diploma on time, you must submit a graduation application by the final May 2nd deadline.

Commencement Ceremony Information:

- ◆ Water will be provided free of charge at the sociology commencement ceremony.
- ◆ You do not need tickets to the sociology commencement ceremony. It is free for all attendees.
- ◆ There are no limits on the number of guests a graduate may bring.
- ◆ Seats are first come first serve and may not be reserved.
- ◆ Note: There is very limited space in the commencement auditorium. Once all seats have been taken, attendees will have to stand.
- ◆ If an attendee has a disability and needs pre-arranged seating accommodations, please contact sociology@colorado.edu no later than Monday, April 29th so appropriate arrangements can be made.

Want a Cap and Gown?

- ◆ Caps and gowns can be purchased by the student at the CU Bookstore, beginning on March 19th. This can be done either in person or online.
- ◆ The cost to purchase the regalia set, which includes the gown, cap, and degree tassel, is $24.99 (plus tax).
