

INFORMATION SCIENCE

CMCI 3000: Kids, Media, and Information in the Early Space Age

Instructor

Dr. Roshanna Sylvester

Time & location

Lecture: MWF 12:00 - 12:50pm,
Muenzinger E131

Repeatable

Repeatable for up to 6.00 total credit hours. Allows multiple enrollment in term.

For more information

For more information about the Spring 2019 version of this course, please contact the instructor at roshanna.sylvester@colorado.edu.

Course Description

Explores how children and teenagers understood and responded to the advent of human space flight and what influences shaped their attitudes towards space travel and exploration. Historical and digital humanities methods will be used to analyze and contextualize media/info sources including print journalism, polling data, ads, TV shows, toys, games, and kids' letters to astronauts.