

Eaton Graduate Student Travel Grant

The Center for Humanities and the Arts (CHA) is pleased to announce its semi-annual competition for graduate student travel grants. Ten awards of $500 will be awarded on a competitive basis for graduate students in the humanities and arts to support travel to conferences where they will present a paper or, for those in the arts, where the student will perform or display their work. All applications from MA and Ph.D. students will be considered; however, the excellence of the project will be the main criterion for selection. CHA will award four travel grants during the fall semester, and six grants will be available for travel occurring in the spring and summer.

ELIGIBILITY

- The applicant must be a full-time graduate student in good standing.
- The student must be traveling to a conference to present his/her own work.
- The applicant can receive one grant per academic year.
- Departments will be limited to two grants per academic year.

To apply for this grant, please complete the application form and include the materials requested on the application checklist. Submit all materials to Paula Anderson, Center for Humanities and Arts, Macky 201, UCB 280.

Fall Deadline: noon, Friday, 1 September 2017
Spring/Summer Deadline: noon, Friday, 26 January 2018
