Navigating Leadership for Social Change

When: Friday, Nov. 2nd | 9 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
Where: CU Boulder campus, Williams Village Conference Center

Join us for a journey through leadership for social change at this inaugural conference for high school students. For more information, contact Malerie Barnes, malerie.barnes@Colorado.edu.

Register: bit.ly/CULeadershipConference

Welcome:
Floyd Pierce, TV personality and CU Boulder graduate, will discuss social change and resiliency while sharing his experiences as a CU Boulder student, a marching band drum major, and a part of “Team Fun” on the CBS hit series, the Amazing Race.

Leadership Sessions:
Explore community leadership topics as part of your choice breakout sessions covering social and environmental justice, multicultural leadership, community-building, grass-roots organizing, and more.

Explore Programs:
Learn about programs of study in leadership and community engagement through CU Boulder’s unique offerings.

Lunch with Leaders:
Connect with CU Boulder students who are leading the change in their communities. Lunch is provided.

Admissions Support:
Resources available for assisting students in navigating admissions, application, financial aid, scholarship and related processes.

Lead the Change.